

Great And Small Folk Pay Highest Tribute Of Nation To America's Unknown Hero Lying In State At Capitol

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Great and small folk moved in endless procession today through the rotunda of the capitol to pay tribute to the unknown dead lying in state here as only martyred presidents have known. The day was set aside for it. All who could speak for groups in the land or for the powers of the world were free to place their floral offerings at his bier. Hour by hour the heaping flowers about the casket grew mountain high and spread about the vast dais. Flowers that bloomed in France were there and flowers brought in all the beauty from South Africa, 9,000 miles away.

Flowers from All Organizations

There was not a minute of the day unclaimed by those who would do honor to the dead. There was no organization of veterans or of patriotic people over the land unrepresented.

Among the most formal of the pilgrimages to this shrine of patriotic valor was that planned by the British embassy. From the embassy building there was arranged a parade headed by Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation to Washington and former prime minister, and Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador. Nearly a score of automobiles formed the procession and two motor trucks carried the flowers.

World Powers Honor Dead

A wreath from King George was among them, Lord Cavan acting for the king. It bore the legend: "As unknown, and yet, well known; As dying, and, behold, we live." There was a wreath, too, from Canada, its inscription saying: "But that which put the Glory of Grace into all that he did was that he did it for pure love of his country."

Flowers from All Organizations

That from Premier Lloyd George said: "Nameless, yet, his name liveth evermore." And that from India: "They never die who die to make life worth living."

There were wreaths also from Australia and New Zealand and all of those except that from India were made of flowers grown in England.

soil, brought over as living plants. Civil Dignitaries Pay Homage

From the Grand Army of United Veterans of Canada came a wreath placed by Sergeant Richardson, oldest living wearer of the Victoria Cross. There were flowers from New Zealand and from the army and navy war veterans of Canada came a memorial woven of poppies that bloom in Flanders' field.

And beside all the civil dignitaries Great Britain sent to pay homage, went Earl Beatty, admiral of the fleet, Air Vice Marshal Higgins and others whose roles in the war in which this unknown soldier died were great. The flowers actually were handled by his comrades of many arms of the British service, men who also fought in France or on the sea in the great struggle.

Soldiers On Guard

Down found a brilliant November sun unobscured by the clouds of yesterday's storm and thrust long, golden fingers through the windows high above the simple bier in the dim, silent chamber. As through the night, five armed men stood motionless about the catafalque in the center of the great granite circle of the rotunda, watching with the dead comrade as they will watch until he is carried away to sleep out time in the quiet Virginia hills.

The flowers laid on the casket last night had been set to each service of the bier. Again it lay in the simple glory of the great flag that is a soldier's winning sheet. Again the cluster of French blossoms, withered and yellow, was the only token on the blended coloring of the banner of freedom save for the sash of white ribbon across the center, worked and laid in place by Mrs. Harding, and the shield of the nation for which he died laid reverently above the still heart by the president.

Thousands To Pay Tribute

Outside, as the day came on, the sun drove the last sullen cloud away over the distant hills to leave a glorious rain-washed sweep of blue, shot with golden light above the dome and the wakening city, last touches were put to the rope lined aisles through which thousands were to pass to pay honor to the dead; thousands whose one claim to fame is that they too are simple Americans such as he who lies in such state as emperors and kings may not know. Straight to the eastward ran the narrow, roped way, lawns in the olive green of their field uniforms, and with fixed bayonets, lining each side. On each man's shoulder swung the looped cords of the fourragere showing that they were of a marine regiment decorated by France for high valor on French soil. Gradually the roped aisle leading on up the great steps to the closed doors filled with folk came to pass by the bier with bowed heads. Off to the right where the steps sweep on to the senate chamber, another group gathered about a floral garland, the first of the many to be set in place. From the other side a double squad of soldiers from the engineer barracks, overcoated against a long vigil in the cold of the fixed chamber beside the dead, with fixed bayonets and rifles at the trail, moved up the main steps and into the hall.

They were going to change guard about the casket as it had been changed at short intervals through the night, as it would constantly change all day and tonight. The party on the senate stairs were led up to enter the rotunda by the senate corridor. Then just at 8 o'clock the great mahogany doors, huge bronze barriers embellished with intricate figures and designs and long ago given the American republic, strangely enough, by France on whose soil the soldier died, swung back and the waiting hundreds stepped upward two abreast to pass by the casket. As the first line stepped within the hall from the group beside the bier, where the flowers were being set in place, male voices rose in blended harmonies that woke the echoes in the high, vaulted roof above, now flooded with sunlight. They sang the last verse of "America":

"Long may our land be bright
"With freedom's Holy Light."
Sang With Peal of Victory

They sang with a peal of victory and no hint of the sorrow. And the last notes died away down the long corridors to right and left as the line that gave the great public its place in the ceremonies moved slowly on and out the western entrance, down over the terraced slopes that face on with the white gleam of Washington monument straight ahead and still behind, severely cut through the center by the great shaft, the square white bulk of Lincoln memorial on the far loam of the Potomac.

About the casket on its low base those who passed by saw the five soldiers, still as though carved from bronze in their khaki trappings. At the head, arms rigid at his side, his own head bent forward until the fan brim of his cap hid his eyes, stood the non-commissioned officer, the red of his chevrons coloring his sleeve. At each corner, facing inward toward the center, stood a soldier, rifle butt grounded on the stone flagging body rigidly erect, but also with head bent forward until cap brim was level with the point of his gleaming bayonet. These soldiers moved not a muscle except at stated intervals, when slight changes of position, made simultaneously, eased the physical strain.

By ten o'clock a steady stream of people—soldiers, men, women and children, white and black—had begun a continuous march through the rotunda.

SCOPE OF THE AMERICAN NAVAL REDUCTION PLAN BEING CLOSELY GUARDED

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—(By the Associated Press)—Proposals to be made by the American delegation to the conference on limitation of armament apparently constitute the only suggestion prepared in advance as to ways and means of curtailing naval expenditures without sacrifice by any power of national security.

Great Britain is not known to have worked out any formula.

Japan is awaiting the American suggestion.

France and Italy are more concerned with land forces than navies.

Two days before the conference opens the American proposals remain a closely guarded secret. It is doubtful if any but President Harding, the four American delegates and possibly the highest officers and officials of the navy department know exactly what the proposals are.

Definite Formula On Limitation

This much is known:

A definite formula for agreement on limitation of naval forces has been reached by Secretary Hughes and his colleagues of the American delegation. The formula is an entirely practical one. It does not attempt to state any general rules for establishing equitable relative of naval forces between the powers. It does not attempt to fix a common denominator by which all navies could be divided and each power assigned by agreement the number of units it could maintain with world approval.

The American suggestion will deal with things as they are. It will be a plain proposition of ships, built, building or authorized; of naval bases; of the vital element of naval replacements, of the potential naval significance of merchant marines and of other concrete, existing or planned weapons and auxiliaries of naval warfare.

Bold Stroke For Naval Act

Also it is regarded by those who framed the suggestions as a bold stroke for naval reduction; possibly too bold for immediate realization.

Beyond this limited outline of what is going on behind the scenes, nothing has yet been available.

Washington is filled, however, with conjecture as to what the American delegation will propose. There are almost as many theories as there are men to talk about it, and their names are legion. The explanation given by Admiral Batten, head of the Japanese delegation, of Japan's attitude in entering the conference and her willingness to cut down her naval program under agreement, has added

"No Surrender Of Ulster's Rights"—Craig

LONDON, November 10.—(By the Associated Press)—A statement issued after this morning's meeting of the Ulster cabinet members here concluded as follows:

"Sir James Craig (the premier) on behalf of the cabinet of northern Ireland, wishes it clearly understood that there can be no surrender of Ulster's rights."

The statement promised by Prime Minister Lloyd George outlining the negotiations with the Sinn Fein representatives had not been received by the representatives of Ulster this forenoon, but Mr. Lloyd George sent word he hoped to be able to supply it during the afternoon.

The secretary of the Ulster party was keeping in touch constantly with Downing street, where the British cabinet met at noon, and it was announced that another meeting of the northern Ireland cabinet would be called as soon as the detailed statement was received. Mr. Lloyd George meanwhile suggested that his meeting with the Ulster cabinet go over until tomorrow.

The Ulster communique, given out after the morning meeting, indicated that in lack of the British premier's statement the Ulster cabinet was unable to make formal reply to the government.

The communique, which concluded with Sir James' statement that there would be no surrender of Ulster's rights, gave a list of those who attended and mentioned the fact that the meeting lasted from eleven to one o'clock.

BANDITS IN RAIDS ON JEWELRY STORES

ST. LOUIS, MO., November 10.—Two armed men today entered the jewelry store of Edward J. Gallant in the downtown section, forced three employees into a rear room and escaped with jewelry valued at from $35,000 to $50,000.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., November 10.—Diamond rings and unset precious stones valued at between $50,000 and $60,000 were stolen from a jewelry store here today by three young bandits, who escaped.

Specially Arranged Lighting

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—Specially arranged street illumination, comprising the equivalent of 10,000,000,000 candles, has been arranged for the armament conference. The exhibit includes a "jeweled" archway or portal, at 17th and B streets, serving as an approach to the building where the conference will convene; an "avenue of light" extending four blocks along 17th street and terminating at the jeweled portal; "light of the states" (an aurora borealis) behind the dome of the capitol and the "hood lighting" of the Washington monument and of many public buildings.

DEMOCRATS PLEASED OVER GAINS MADE IN ELECTIONS; REPUBLICANS GET SURPRISE

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Thoughts of the armistice conference were momentarily interrupted in the national capital to canvass the meaning of the various elections. Most of the contests were local but the general trend of Democratic success has not only pleased the minority hereabouts, but given the majority party cause for slight uneasiness about the congressional campaign, which will develop within the next few months.

Isolated Election Results Difficult to Analyze

It is always difficult to analyze election results in isolated sections. The Republican leaders professed to see little significance in what occurred Tuesday. The Democrats were overjoyed, pointing out that the Republican claim of great gains in Virginia had failed to materialize and that Democratic mayors had been elected for the first time in many years in both Syracuse and Albany, hitherto staunch Republican strongholds. The fact that New York city re-elected its Democratic mayor by an overwhelming majority prompted the Democrats here to point out that the tide which swept New York City for Harding had started in an opposite direction.

Nationally speaking, the gains by the "wets" on the prohibition issue did not pass unnoticed here where congress is getting ready to act upon the anti-beer bill. The New Jersey Democrats who have apparently made big gains in the legislature after a most humiliating defeat last year has an importance however, beyond the wet question for a United States Senator is to be elected there next November. President Harding has sensed the perils of the New Jersey political situation and has right along tried to do all he could to help Mr. Frelinghuysen's prestige there. The fact that close contests between the Republican and Democratic parties are indicated in two such populous states as New York and New Jersey as impressing observers here. It means that Congress within the next few months will be more closely watched than heretofore, and that the action taken on the tax and tariff questions will have much to do with the political complexion of the next congress.

The Democratic gains in the New York legislature may make things different for Senator Calder, Republican, next year.

Results May Affect Republican Plans

From an international viewpoint, a change in the political character of Congress next year would be of transcendent importance for it was in the middle of Mr. Wilson's second term that he lost control of the Senate. The consensus of opinion today seems to be that the elections of this week will have a decided effect upon Republican plans. Hereafter, with such a large majority, there has been little worry about the political future. The disposition has been to assume that many Republican seats could still be lost and control retained. Until the election of this week such an assumption was generally accepted by Democrats as quite likely. They did not dream of overturning the Republican hold on Congress but the results in the elections have spurred them on and brought out confident predictions that the complexion of Congress will change next year.

The Republican leaders know therefore that the next six months will tell the tale—that President Harding's armament conference from which it must succeed and that the people must feel satisfied with the way Congress has acted on the tariff as well as kindred matters before they will vote to return the present party. Some disinterested observers believe the elections of the week convey only one meaning—namely a continued tendency on the part of the people to vote against the incumbent party. The feeling against the party in power in 1920 was intense. Dissatisfaction with what the Republicans might do in Congress would not, therefore, have any particular reference to the capacity of the Democrats to do any better. The protest vote is still all-powerful. The prestige of neither party is probably any but the restlessness of the body politic is just as pronounced as it was a year ago.

House To Send Storm Moves Tax Bill To Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—The house was to send the tax revision to conference today under an agreement between leaders of the Republican majority and the "insurgents" that an opportunity would be given for a vote on the senate maximum surtax rate of 50 per cent. before the conference came to a final decision on this amendment.

Spokesmen for the "insurgents" said they had from 80 to 85 votes, or enough, with the support of the Democratic minority, to force acceptance of the senate rate. Democratic leaders said they would insist upon the 30 per cent.

House To Send Storm Moves To East States

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—The storm which brought winter weather with rain and snow to wide sections of the midwest yesterday, was moving northeastward to the New England states today, with weather bureau predictions of similar weather there and in the north Atlantic states generally.

Central and western New York continued in the grip of the snow storm which descended upon it yesterday, but clearing weather was predicted for that section also late today. An average of five inches of snow was reported to have fallen in the central and western parts of the state in the last 24 hours.

BRITISH DELEGATION CORDIALLY WELCOMED IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—Arthur J. Balfour, acting head of the delegation representing the British empire in the armament and Far Eastern conference, arrived in Washington today with other members of his party, which landed at Quebec Tuesday. Simultaneously the delegates from New Zealand and Australia, en route to the city, completing, with the exception of Premier Lloyd George, who has promised to come later, the British representation in the conference.

A distinguished group of American and British officials received the former prime minister and his party at the station. Secretary Hughes and Robert Woods Bliss, third assistant secretary of state; General Pershing, Brigadier General Brewster and ranking officers of the army and navy composed the American group while the British official welcoming group included Sir Auckland Geddes, ambassador to the United States.

The train bearing Sir J. W. Salmond, representing New Zealand in the conference, and George Foster Pearce, acting in the same capacity for Australia, arrived a few minutes before that carrying the Balfour party pulled into the station. The two groups soon merged and were presented to Secretary Hughes by the British ambassador.

Mr. Balfour was escorted by the American secretary of state from the station platform into the president's room. The two met as old friends and immediately dispensed with formalities, to begin what appeared to be a serious conversation on subjects soon to engage the attention of both in the conference.

As the secretary of state and the former premier appeared in the doorway, facing the capitol where the body of America's unknown soldier lies in state the military band sounded "Attention," followed with "God Save the King" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Big army automobiles soon were rolling across the plaza of the station and into the capitol grounds.

Soldiers there as a guard to the unknown soldier stood at attention, presenting arms.

ELECTED TO THREE OFFICES

BELLEFONTAINE, O.—C. S. Johnson was elected to three offices at the election Tuesday. He was elected mayor of West Liberty; justice of peace for Liberty township and member of board of elections for Logan county.

Dr. Andre Cottell, of Grant Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, will be at the Mercy Hospital Clinic November 14, to see any golfer case who might wish to consult him. Any one wishing to see Dr. Cottell should register at the Clinic before November 12.—Advertiser, 5-4-5-10-10

Notice of the representatives of the Veterans Bureau visiting Portsmouth should be announced from all pupils and rural school rooms in the county at once. Teachers and ministers are requested to make this announcement. On Wednesday and Thursday the Bureau will receive men from Adams and Lawrence counties and on Friday and Saturday men from Scoto county. W. O. Johnson will head the corps of workers who will be in Portsmouth to look after this work.

The Veterans Bureau is making a special effort to reach all disabled ex-service men of the World War whose claims are now pending or who have claims that have not been satisfactorily adjusted. For this purpose a "clean-up" campaign was started and "clean-up" squads are now operating in every state. The Ohio squad will be in Portsmouth from Nov. 16 to 19 and will have its headquarters in the American Legion club rooms, on Gallia street. The main purpose of this squad is to get in touch with the disabled men who have claims of long-standing against the government and have had no action on their cases.

This is an opportunity for the men to present their claim in person to official representatives of the Bureau and every man whose physical condition is impaired by reason of his military service and who has a claim pending is urged to appear before this board. Men desiring to present new claims are advised as to the steps necessary and all questions relating to compensation, insurance, vocational training, hospitalization and medical care are authoritatively answered.

SOCIETY

The First Evangelical choir will meet this evening at 7:15 o'clock for practice. All members are urged to be present.

What promises to be one of the popular dances of the winter is the complimentary dance to be given under the auspices of the Portsmouth Syrian Shrine Club on Wednesday evening, November 16, at the Winter Garden. The dance will be exclusively for Shriners, their wives and sweethearts, and every effort is being extended by the entertainment committee to make the dance a success. Special musical features are being arranged and a record attendance is anticipated.

The committee in charge of the dance includes: President Harry Eagle, H. Glen Duis, Sherrard Johnson, Robert Halalip, Carl Windel and C. W. Hutchins.

Mrs. James Fulton, 1626 Baird avenue was hostess and Mrs. Ray Seales assistant hostess at the meeting of members of Group Eight of Trinity church held yesterday with Mrs. Fulton. The members spent the afternoon knitting a comfort, and making plans for the bazaar to be held next week. There were no guests other than the regular members. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

One of the prettiest parties of the week was tendered Mrs. Joseph Sommer, (Marie Brunner) a recent bride, when Miss Edna Schaefer entertained informally at her home, 316 Market street last night. The affair was in the nature of a "tea towel" shower for Mrs. Sommer, and the guests devoted the evening to hemming the towels. Music and dancing also added to the entertainment.

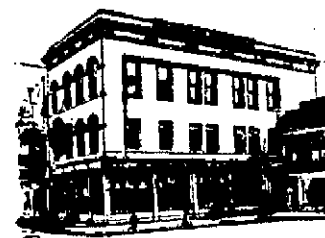

At ten o'clock the guests were ushered into the dining room where a delicious two course supper was served. The table was centered with a novel basket of yellow asters and ferns, and each end was lighted by tall cathedral candles with yellow shades. The place cards and nut baskets were blue, thus effectively carrying out a blue and yellow color combination in all the appointments.

A small leatherbound book entitled "How to Treat a Husband" was presented to the bride, with a page of advice written by each of the guests, and afforded a great amount of merriment. Places were marked at the table for Mrs. Sommer, the honored guest; Misses Helen Glockner, Frances Belmont, Agnes Schumann, Adelaide Orlett, Mrs. James O'Keefe, Mrs. Bernard Sommer, Mrs. Alfred Schaefer, Mrs. L. C. Sommer, Mrs. Harry August, Mrs. Carol Augustine and the hostess, Miss Edna Schaefer.

Mrs. Sommer has been the recipient of several social affairs since her wedding which was an event of two weeks ago.

Members of the Netchum Auxiliary of the Second Presbyterian church enjoyed an all day sewing bee today at the church parlors. The members assembled at ten o'clock and at noon a delicious dinner was served. Before sewing was resumed after dinner a business meeting was held. The members reviewed the Home Study Book and "Unfinished Business." Mrs. John Lowry had charge of the first part of this book and Miss Gertrude Elliott the last part. The hostesses for the day included Mrs. R. P. Elder, Mrs. H. M. Keil, Mrs. Dave Mitchell, Miss Anna Helmsch and Miss Mary Carville. The Auxiliary is working on gauze and bandages for a missionary hospital in North Carolina.

Mrs. Kate Newman of Second street is in Huntington, W. Va., the guest of her niece, Mrs. E. N. Alger. Mrs. Newman went to Huntington to be present at the family reunion in honor of the eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Mr. George O. Newman, held at the home of Mrs. Alger Wednesday.

'DREAM STREET'

A Dramatic Comedy Story
casted by Characters of Thomas Burke

The Most Artistic Production Portsmouth has Ever Seen—Everybody is Talking About D. W. Griffith's new Picture "Dream Street" at the Eastland Theatre—Tonight is Positively Your Last Chance to See It. Shows At 6:30 and 8:30. Prices Adults 30 Cents, Children 15 Cents. Don't Forget Matinees Every Day. Prices Adults 20 Cents, Children 10 Cents. With lands that will know their way into the secret pockets of life David Wark Griffith has built a new tale of love and lovers, which was shown as "Dream Street" at the Eastland Theatre the third time yesterday. It is a story of the unusual. The young winds of beauty seem to blow across it. Mystery and high adventure lurk along the dim streets, folded in fog. Lovely and haunting pictures swim before the delighted eyes. The quick action swarms to a sudden suspense. Even the breathless thrill, and again relax in sympathy with the slightest sweetness of the two lovers, who only know they are in love. Much of Griffith is in it, and only a whisper of Thomas Burke, who wrote the stories which suggested certain of the scenes. It is not a member of the family of "Broken Blossom" for the producer accurately describes "Dream Street" as a dramatic comedy. It introduces three young players of exceptional interest: Ralph Graves as James "Spike" McFadden, who conquers the girls with his golden voice and the males with his great fists. Carol Dempster is Gypsy Fair, gentle, brave and gay, swift and restless as a bird, with every pulse of her body singing with joy. The brother of "Spike" is Charles Emmet Mack, the properly boy of recent months, who had the astounding fortune and great talents to become famous over night as one of the Griffith players.

SYNOPSIS
A photodrama of wide contrasts ranging from the childhood of a young girl in a small village to the society atmosphere of a large city. The story role furnishes Corinne Griffith material to display her versatility and permits her to wear many elaborate gowns. The star makes her departure in this production by appearing as a fourteen-year-old girl in the first half of the story. She is exceptionally clever in child parts and should win many friends. An exceptionally strong cast was assembled to support Miss Griffith in this production and such names as Catherine Calvert, William Parks, Jr., Joe King, Harry C. Brown, and Alice Conrad are found in the list. Beautiful sets and exquisite scenic backgrounds give the picture an atmosphere and the story one of unusual twists which is seldom equalled in screen productions.

giving. Chairman Mark Crawford is at the head of the general committee in charge of the roll call and now that the election is over he hopes many more people will volunteer to aid in the work. He wants a volunteer from every organization of every kind in Portsmouth. Telephone your name to Mr. Crawford or the Red Cross.

Following are some pertinent facts concerning the necessity of Red Cross work:

One in every eight babies dies before its first birthday.

One in every ten men and women dies of tuberculosis in the prime of life.

More women die in childbirth than of any disease except tuberculosis. Countless numbers of men, women and children are hampered and distressed by ill health.

And yet the prevention of much of this sickness and these premature deaths is within the control of man. What would you do if one-eighth of your calves died each year? If worms and insects destroyed or damaged your crops before they had barely begun to grow? If one in every ten of your business enterprises failed just as it was getting a start?

If your roads and bridges and buildings deteriorated and wore out too soon?

Reveals

things salesmen don't tell

MOOD MUSIC and such other new developments prove that some one has greatly improved the phonograph; and made it a finer, better instrument.

Who will reveal to you the truth about these improvements, and how they have changed conditions in the phonograph field? Our Turn-Table Comparison brings together the four leading makes of phonographs in the same room, and plays them from the same position. By using recordings by the same artists, it affords an absolutely scientific comparison.

Come in—and hear it. Hear it before you buy your Christmas phonograph. It's the only way you can be sure of knowing the best phonograph of today.

"I Am Satisfied; Newberry Will Make Good," Mayor Davis Says

Mayor J. S. Davis this morning said: "I am perfectly satisfied with the result and am glad to see Newberry the winner. I will give him a hearty co-operation at all times as he is a very deserving young man and should make the village a splendid official."

Mayor Davis stated that he did not want to be a candidate but after the primaries, Republicans came to him and urged him to run, many being dissatisfied with the Republican choice for the Mayor's race, he says. Mayor Davis' petition filed with the Board of Elections contains the names of Republicans and Democrats and only two or three Socialists.

Seek Injunction Against Miners In Mingo

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 10.—Hearing of the application of the Borderland Coal Corp. and 63 other coal companies for an injunction restraining the United Mine Workers of America from attempting to unionize the Mingo and Logan county coal fields and from enforcing the check-off system in the organized districts, was to take place today in United States district court here before Judge George W. McClintock.

The case is similar to that recently heard by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson at Indianapolis, and in which a preliminary injunction was granted restraining the mine workers from organizing the West Virginia non-union fields and from employing the check-off system.

To Hurry Pay Of Soldier Bonus For Ohioan

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—Preparations were continued this morning to expedite the work of arranging to pay the soldiers' bonus which the voters of Ohio authorized overwhelmingly Tuesday.

Without waiting for the governor's proclamation, Attorney General Price, Secretary of State Smith and Auditor of State Tracy, who constitute the sinking fund commission, issued a statement in which they said that much detail work must be done before the bonus can be paid.

Although no further legislation is necessary to make the bonus a reality, the statement pointed out that the bonds must first be sold and an organization perfected to handle and distribute the bonus money.

Inquiries were received yesterday from bond buyers and state officials anticipate no difficulty in disposing of the bond issue.

The bonds are to be sold at not less than par and may aggregate $25,000,000 if necessary to assure payment of the bonus, which is $10 a month to each veteran for each month served, or not more than $250 to any veteran.

Federation Of Professional Sports

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Plans for the formation of a state organization of boxing promoters, managers, boxers, second and boxing fans were under way today as the result of a meeting of sport enthusiasts last night. Senator James A. Walker, author of the present state boxing law, made the principal address. The name "Federation of Professional Sports," was suggested for the organization, which its founders hope will eventually develop into a national body.

Billie Gibson presided at the meeting. Leonie Leonard and Jack Britton, boxing champions, pledged their support to the enterprise.

"Pape's Cold Compound" Breaks any Cold in Few Hours

Instant relief! Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up any cold.

The very first dose opens clogged nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" acts quick, sure, and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice; contains no quinine. —Insist upon Pape's! —Advertisement

Madariaga

He will endure through the ages as a great character, this cattle baron of the Argentine whom they called the Centaur because of the way he sat his horse.

A vigorous personality and, if you will, predatory and tyrannical over the thousands who worked his lands. But colorful; full-blooded and lusty and blunt-spoken.

You will remember Madariaga vividly: because of these things, and because he first takes the center of the stage in the most astounding drama the motion picture has achieved:

Entire score of music specially written and arranged for this great picture will be played by a ten piece orchestra and pipe organ during each showing both afternoon and evening.

The FOUR HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE

from the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibanez adapted by June Mathis

A REX INGRAM PRODUCTION

It is no pale pastel of life, no timid miniature. The story is as vital and instinctively courageous as Madariaga himself. It has sweep and power and color. Ibanez, ever a writer of bold certainty, painted this, his biggest canvas, with an inspired surety transcendental even to himself.

Buff Is To Meet Sharkey Tonight

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Johnny Buff, world's champion bantamweight, will defend his title tonight against Jack Sharkey in a fifteen round bout. Sharkey has announced that he will make a determined effort to snatch the laurels from the brow of Buff, who has held the title only five weeks after wrestling it from Pete Herman. Sharkey was the only man who could whip Jimmy Wilde when the great little Welshman came over here, and Buff is prepared to defend his new title with the best he has.

Post Season Game

HAVERHILL, MASS., Nov. 10.—The Haverhill high school eleven probably will play a post-season game with Duval high school of Jacksonville, Florida, it was announced today. Dear Dolly—When a woman goes into a restaurant or ice cream parlor is it proper to sit with her back or her face to the crowd?

A woman should never go anywhere that she is ashamed to be seen. She usually takes the seat which affords the best view of the crowd.

Dear Dolly—When a girl is of age and living with her sister, isn't it necessary for a man who expects to marry her to ask the permission of the sister, or just go ahead and marry her?

If the girl is willing to marry him it isn't necessary to ask the sister about it. Out of courtesy, however, he should mention the fact that he expects to marry the girl.

HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS with Tomato Sauce

With three times three hundred and sixty five meals to think about every year it is no wonder mother's head feels as if it were going round in circles.

But that can always stop when she thinks of Heinz Baked Beans.

They are a common-sense dish with a wonderful flavor. Really oven baked and enriched by the famous Heinz tomato sauce.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE STAR

CHAPTER XXII—COME INTO MY DRESSING ROOM

ROSE MONTELLION took me in hand and taught me all she knows about makeup and it is more than the others know altogether. And she saved because she hadn't saved me from the jealous cats.

"I saw you, dearie, and I meant to wash your face, but Henry came along with one of his tales of woe and I had to listen in. You were on the set when I got rid of him. But I guess I can show you a few makeup stunts the others haven't caught on to."

She was true to her promise, and for that I am always nice to Mrs. Henry Larkin.

But I often wonder why Mrs. Nandy never lets Rose stay three minutes alone with me. It's a great relief, one way, to have Polly Anderson stick around. When I'm alone with Rose she invariably brings up McMaister's name. She fairly raves about his generosity. But when Mrs. Nandy is among those present Rose never mentions him.

Daily Rose contributed a bit of excitement to the routine of my dressing-room. I've read a good deal of nonsense about the marvelous dressing-rooms of the famous movie stars. I've seen pages of art which seemed to prove that a studio dressing-room is an artistic combination of drawing room, reception room, dining-room, boudoir and kitchenette. I've played small parts in several studios but I never came across any such elegance and convenience as that.

I've discovered that most dressing-rooms are as simple as my own. Which looks like a private room in a modern hotel. It's a spacious cement cell opening from a cement hall. It's high and narrow, fire-proof and sanitary, with huge windows.

The dressing table's gay cretonne cover introduces a dash of color. A day-bed gayly pillowed, invites me to relax and rest between scenes. There are two comfortable chairs—and no more—because it would never do to en-

VERDICT OF SUICIDE

TOLEDO, O., November 10.—A verdict of suicide due to despondency, was returned by Coroner Hentzer today after probing the death of Luther Gulther, 23, found dead in Navarre Park Wednesday morning with a bullet hole through his heart.

Investigation proved that Gulther had a wife and three months old baby in Desota, Missouri, and a wife in Toledo, whom he had married last June.

A telephone call to the coroner's office last night revealed the fact that he was engaged to wed another Toledo girl at the time of the suicide. When the body was found a wedding ring was in his pocket.

Gulther was scheduled to appear in federal court here Tuesday for trial on the charge of stealing from interstate shipments.

The immediate conditions of the death pointed to murder, but in the probe it was found that the bullet that pierced his heart entered the body through the vest and not through the coat or overcoat.

Pain In Back?

Usually Your System is full of Uric Acid to Excess and this Causes Rheumatic Pains. Your Kidneys do Not Carry Away the Poison. Here is what a Well Known Man Says:

Minerva, Ohio.—"I was suffering most severely from a pain in my back. I got a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Auric (anti-uric-acid) tablets and took them. No Suits To Oust Oles, Mayor-Elect YOUNGSTOWN, O., November 10.—George Oles, eccentric market proprietor, seemed firmly entrenched today as Youngstown's mayor-elect. Reports of suits against his election over Mayor Warnock, Republican, by 445 votes, appear to be unfounded. Investigation shows he established his residence in Youngstown in a local hotel with a margin of several weeks over the legal period required. Republican headquarters, which on election night refused to concede defeat until the last precinct had been counted, at that time threatened suit on the ground that Oles' promise to give his salary to charity was a bribe to the poorer classes, but this project apparently has been dropped. A recount is being held by the board of elections, but its result is expected to increase Oles' plurality, as he had no organization and therefore no weaknesses at the polls when the ballots were counted, so that errors against him were more likely to slip through than errors for him.

Mr. Oles and his wife, who was a potent factor in his spectacular campaign, will leave for a vacation in Florida Friday night, and the mayor-elect announced that he would make no appointments for six weeks.

Yesterday he tentatively offered the post of safety director to a bank cashier a Republican, who said he "wouldn't have the office on a silver platter."

Theatrical

Sun Has Good Bill

A well attended matinee marked the reopening of the Sun theatre this afternoon when a feature program of vaudeville and first run moving pictures was presented. The four acts of high class vaudeville won much applause from the audience, the acts being some of the best ever offered on a Portsmouth stage. The Brightons, comedy rag pickers, present an act extraordinary. McNally and Ashton offer "a study in black" which is full of fun. Morris and Adelaide in "a little different" and Griffin and Miller entertainers de lux complete the acting program. Dorothy Dalton stars in "A Market of Souls" feature pictures. Friday night four champion divers of Portsmouth will appear on the stage as an added attraction and special feature. Matinee daily and two night shows. Special matinee for children Saturday. Prices back to pre-war times, with war tax included.

Killed By Automobile

TOLEDO, O., November 10.—Mrs. Edgar T. Keller, 65, president of Forney's Post, Women's Relief Corps, was almost instantly killed when struck by an automobile at a street intersection in the downtown district here late yesterday.

In attempting to avoid a passing machine, Mrs. Keller stepped directly in front of a car going in the opposite direction. She sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries. This is the thirty-seventh death here so far this year as a result of automobile mishaps.

Demand Early Trial

LOS ANGELES, CAL., November 10.—A petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the superior court to grant an immediate trial to Mrs. Madalynee Obenchain on an indictment charging the murder of J. B. Belton Kennedy, or dismissal, the indictment, will be filed in the state appellate court here, it was announced today by Charles E. Erlstein, chief counsel for her defense.

In the petition, Mrs. Obenchain, according to Erlstein, asserts that she does not seek to escape trial upon a technicality and prefers an order for immediate trial rather than dismissal of the indictment. The petition recites that Mrs. Obenchain is being unlawfully held, and that the case was continued for trial to November 22, with the superior court "well knowing that trial will not take place on that date," because the case of Arthur C. Birch, jointly indicted with her, has been set for trial on that date.

Full transcript of the proceedings in the case up to November 8, was attached to the petition.

Ingrown Nails Turn Right Out

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, so that it can be penetrated the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic, manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—advertisement.

Politician Convicted

YOUNGSTOWN, O., November 10.—Joseph W. Weiss, politician, who though not an official, had an office in city hall here until recently, today was expected to file a motion, for a new trial, after his conviction last night on charges of obtaining money under false pretense. Weiss, who, though not a lawyer, conducted his own defense, was charged specifically with taking money on representation that he had influence to get a detained immigrant who had tuberculosis out of Ellis Island. He is the second convicted of the men indicted after a recent investigation of city affairs by a grand jury. Safety Director Scott was convicted of taking bribes in connection with liquor law violations; charges against mayor's secretary, Danke, were dropped on condition that he resign, and Detective Richmond is to go on trial soon.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED TOMORROW; COMMUNITY SING IS FEATURE

Armistice Day, Friday, Nov. 11, marking the third anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in the World War is to be observed in Portsmouth when fitting tribute is paid to the nation's hero dead.

Complete plans for an Armistice Day celebration are to be carried out in detail, the day to be made one that will long be remembered in the Portsmouth City.

Every citizen is urged to take some part in the program announced for tomorrow, even if it is only the displaying of a flag from the home or place of business. Everyone who has a flag is urged to put it out tomorrow.

The program will start at 11 a. m., when the factory whistles will blow and church bells will ring calling attention of all to the fact that at 11 a. m. three years ago fighting in the World War was halted by the signing of an Armistice.

As the whistles blow and bells ring at 11 o'clock employees in all business places and factories are to pause in their work for five minutes.

Many places of business will close at 11 a. m. and will remain closed for the remainder of the day. Others will close for several hours. Several bighers have been secured to sound taps in the business district.

The ringing of the bells and the blowing of the whistles at eleven o'clock tomorrow will be a reminder of the opportunity for devotion and patriotic expression given by the Ministerial Association at the Second Presbyterian church where, beginning at 11:30 there will be six ten-minute periods of such devotion and patriotism. While at Washington the body of the unknown soldier is laid to rest in prayer and meditation regarding the service of the nation's men during the war and the need of conserving what they purchased through their service.

Both the thought of the patriotic service of America's men during the World War and the Armistice Day Conference at Washington will fill the minds of those who come to this service for worship. The church will be open at 11:00 for any who may want to come previous to the first period of the leadership of Rev. Boyd. Those who can stay for ten minutes only will be given an opportunity to come and go at the following times: 11:30, 11:40, 11:50, 12:00 noon, 12:10, 12:20. It is expected that all those whose work can be so arranged will attend at least one of the periods. This is for the whole city and no one should feel timid about coming.

A special invitation is given through the ministers to the American Legion and all service men to come for this service in their honor and for the great cause which gave them an undying place in the affections of the nation.

The Armistice Day chorus composed of the best voices in the city will give an appropriate musical program at the high school auditorium tomorrow evening under the auspices of the American Legion. This fine chorus has been practicing faithfully for months under the direction of Foster Kruke and this program will be one of the finest presented in a musical line in this city for many years.

All are invited. No admission will be charged.

We close tomorrow, (Friday) at 11 o'clock, on account of Armistice Day.

Library To Close
During Noon Hour

Miss Anna A. Newton, announced that Carnegie Library will be closed tomorrow, Armistice Day, during the noon day memorial services, from eleven until one o'clock.

Noel Dismissed

John Noel appeared in Municipal court Thursday to meet a peace warrant sworn out by Mrs. Ethel Gibbs, 1228 Front street, who claimed that the defendant accosted her on the street yesterday and cursed and threatened her. Noel denied her statement and for lack of convincing evidence, Judge Sprague dismissed the complaint after cautioning Noel about his future conduct.

Special Music For Masonic Dance Friday

Masons attending the dance to be given at Buesman's Academy on Friday night, are to enjoy some of the highest class music obtainable. Schleimann's Orchestra is to furnish the music, and an unusually good time is assured all who attend. The committee in charge, Messrs. H. K. Moore, E. C. Dixon, Wm. Quinn and J. I. Marsh, extend a personal invitation to all Masons, their wives and sweethearts, to attend the dance. A splendid program of dances has been arranged, and will continue from nine until twelve.

Dr. W. E. Gault To Leave City

Dr. W. E. Gault, who will soon locate in Detroit, left for that city Wednesday. He and Dr. G. E. McVoy of Detroit have purchased a "sanatorium" in that city and will take it over shortly. They will specialize in rectal diseases.

Dr. and Mrs. Gault have been highly regarded residents of Portsmouth for 23 years and their legion of friends will sincerely regret their departure from the city, but will wish them all the luck in the world in their new home.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Home Coming

A Home Coming will be the feature of the weekly meeting of Portsmouth Council Jr. O. U. A. M. next week. Invitations are being mailed to each member and to the New Boston, McDermott, Buena Vista, Stockdale, Minford and Wakefield lodges to attend what is expected to be the biggest meeting of the year. State Secretary J. G. A. Richter of Canton and State Organizer W. A. Clark of Waponeau City are expected to attend. Mr. Clark will present to the lodge a set of emblematic pedestal covers, a prize won by the lodge last year. Five individual awards will be made to members who were active in the 1920 membership campaign. Frank Schmidt, Morris Thatcher and P. W. Quicker form the committee in charge of plans for the big meeting. Six candidates form a class to be initiated next week. Applications George Faler, C. M. Quicker, and R. D. Pennington were received last night when plans were made for the Home Coming affair.

Looking For Young Man

Parker Benson, of Pikeston, was in the city Thursday looking for his son James W. Benson, 19 years old, who has been missing from his home in that village since Tuesday. The last trace of the young man so far obtained by the parent is that he got into an automobile driven by a drummer and came towards this city. At the time of his disappearance the young man was dressed in a brown suit and brown cap. Relatives are much concerned over the safety of the young man by reason that he is suffering from mental trouble the result of illness for the past several months. The father enlisted the police in the search and he will greatly appreciate any information as to his whereabouts.

Two Assessors Elected
Only two assessors were voted for in the city at Tuesday's election. W. L. B. Jack was elected without opposition in the First Ward and Andrew McCorkle was named for the Fourth Ward.

Red Cross Day

The entire service Sunday evening at the United Brethren church corner of Seventh and Gay streets will be given over to the consideration of the Red Cross and its constructive program for Seoto county.

There will be special musical features and in addition to a short talk by the pastor, Miss Edna Streich, chairman of the nursing committee will give some first hand information on the conditions that actually exist in Seoto county. It is also quite likely that Professor L. W. Watson, head of the Vocational Department of Education of the United States Government, for the training of ex-service men will be present. All ex-service men, their wives and friends as well as others are urged to come.

We close tomorrow, (Friday) at 11 o'clock, on account of Armistice Day.

Eagles Will Celebrate

The Eagles will celebrate Armistice Day tomorrow night with a special meeting and special service. The service will be open to the public the meeting to start at 8 p. m. The Eagles have a special ritual for this memorable day and will use it tomorrow night. It is the only lodge so far having special ritual for Armistice Day. The regular meeting will be held tonight.

Ragged Social This Evening

Members of Delta Camp, Royal Neighbors of America will have a ragged social tonight as a feature of the meeting. This is for members only. The person having the worst looking costume will be given a prize. One transfer is to be acted upon at the business meeting to be held a short time before the social hour begins. A hot lunch will be served.

SCHLIEMANN'S SAXAPHONE SIX COLUMBIA

Tonight, Tomorrow, Saturday

This sextette will give a half hour program at the close of each picture, both afternoon and evening today, tomorrow and Saturday.

No advance in prices.

Manager Types of the Columbia Theatre announces an extraordinary musical attraction for the last three days of this week, beginning today, when the Schliemann Saxophone Six, an aggregation of six young men featuring a Saxophone Sextette appear in connection with "The Sky Pilot" one of the real picture productions of this season.

This talented organization comes to local lovers of music warmly recommended by both press and public wherever they have appeared. Two of its members were formerly with the original Brown Brothers Saxophone Sextette, the first act of its kind to appear in vaudeville and incidentally the highest paid musical act of its kind; other members of this Company were with the original Paul Whiteman Orchestra whose fame is world wide at the present time. In a repertoire that ranges from Jazz to Grand Opera and headed by a blackface Comedian whose antics are guaranteed to keep any audience in constant good humor, one of the most pleasing entertainments ever presented in Portsmouth will certainly be presented at the Columbia these three days.

This famous Sextette will present a half-hour program at the close of each picture, both afternoon and evening and you will certainly miss a rare treat if you do not come to the Columbia during this engagement. Shows will start promptly at 1:00, 3:00, 5:00, 7:00 and 9:00, and regular prices will prevail of Adults 30c and Children 20c.

COURT HOUSE

Accused of Stealing Feather Bed

Arrested by the Newark authorities on a warrant issued from the local Municipal court, Sidney Ormers, 30 years old, was returned from that city to Portsmouth last night by Deputy Sheriff Frank Bennett to meet a charge of larceny in connection with the alleged theft of a feather mattress valued at $40 belonging to Mrs. Minnie Goltz of Eighth street.

It is alleged that Ormers, who claims to be a mattress expert, secured possession of the Goltz mattress on Nov. 1 on the pretense of recovering it and failed to return the property.

Ordered To Lancaster School

Roy Tipton, 13 years old, son of Reda Tipton, Seotoville, was adjudged a delinquent and incorrigible youth by Judge Gilliland at a hearing in Juvenile court Thursday and the lad was ordered committed to the Lancaster Industrial school.

The lad has been in trouble before and was made a ward of the court two years ago for misconduct. A motion to modify a former order of the court in respect to the payment of alimony was filed by the plaintiff, through Attorney E. G. Millar, Thursday, in the case of John Holland, local drug salesman, against Lulu Holland. Holland claims he has a son in college and declares that the expense of his maintenance is such that he is no longer able to comply with the former order of the court and also maintain his son.

The absence of a material witness resulted in a continuance of the $25,000 personal injury damage suit of David Altman against the Norfolk & Western Railway company when it was called for trial before Judge Thomas and a jury in Common Pleas court Thursday morning. Both sides wanted the missing witness, Harley Ashcraft, 629 Boundary street, and Judge Thomas continued the hearing until Monday, November 21, in order to bring the witness into court. Ashcraft was reported to have left Tuesday for Kentucky where he was called by the illness of a relative.

Held For Grand Jury Action

Kelley Morris, 23 years old, native of Morgan county, Ky., was held for grand jury action under $500 on a charge of passing worthless checks, by Squire William McManes at the end of a preliminary hearing held Thursday at the county Jail office. Morris was picked up by Detectives Reno and Leslie after, it is claimed, he passed two bogus checks in the sum of $4 each at the N. & W. Y. M. C. A. at East Portsmouth. Morris is also said to be wanted at Pikeville and West Liberty, Ky., for forgery.

Seeks Divorce and Former Name

Estella Kehr, 310 Court street, charges cruelty and neglect in her suit for divorce and alimony with restoration to her maiden name of Burden, filed in Common Pleas court Thursday against John H. Kehr, telegraph operator, employed at the Western Union office, 544 Second street. They were married in March, 1920, and through Attorneys Blair and Blair the plaintiff complains that Kehr has been cold and indifferent toward her, called her vile and vulgar names, threatened to strike her, besides she says, that for a long time past he has made remarks such as "A change of pasture helps a man" and "Sumpstide is a spring breeding ground and I will have to try it out," and similar expressions such as to cause her to lose her peace of mind, she declares. She further asserts that Kehr on last Monday took their furniture together with her clothing and removed them from their home at the Court street address to an unknown place and claims that he refuses to return her clothes to her.

Taken To Reformatory

Clifford Lewis, Ironton young man, who recently was sentenced to the Mansfield Reformatory on his plea of guilty to a charge of attempting to pass a forged check, was taken to the institution Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Frank Bennett.

SOCIETY

Miss Clara Fields of Highland avenue entertained the members of the T. B. C. club members last evening at her home on Highland avenue. Sewing, music, dancing and contests afforded music during the evening, after which Miss Hazel Clark was awarded the prize for guessing the nearest correct number of grains on an ear of corn. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Jack Leggett, in serving refreshments of ices and cakes to the Misses Marie McLaughlin, Pearl Smith, Hazel Clark, Anna Kanasse, Ess Townsend, Matilda Baker, Louella Knonse, Georgia Townsend, Grace Shump. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Grace Shump of Robinson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Conroy and daughter Kathleen of Fourth street will motor to Columbus tomorrow to visit for a few days and to attend the Purdue State football game Saturday.

Harold Oxley's Society Entertainers of Roanoke, Virginia, will furnish the music at Buesman's Dancing Academy this evening. This orchestra has made a big hit in every city where it has played and patrons of this popular dance hall will enjoy a rare treat when they attend the dance this evening. Dancing will continue from 9 until 12 o'clock.

Miss Lida Taylor, who has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Damm, of Mahert Road, is improving.

Gordon Damm, small son of Mrs. Harry Damm, of 1919 Mahert Road, who had his tonsils and adenoids removed yesterday at Dr. George Martin's office, is improving.

Phil Wolff will arrive home Saturday from Asheville, N. C., but Mrs. Wolff will remain there indefinitely for her health.

Mrs. Paul Dawson of Third street has returned from a visit to relatives in Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. Earnest Kidd left this morning for Cincinnati, where she will undergo a nasal operation in Dr. Sattler's hospital.

HERE IS OFFICIAL VOTE

Canvass of the official vote cast in Tuesday's election completed Thursday by the Board of Elections disclosed but a few minor changes which were not in a single instance sufficient to affect the result in any of the contests. The official figures give Mayor Gableman a majority of 1090 and he led the winners in this respect. This is still to be the largest margin for the winner in a mayoralty contest in the history of the city.

The official vote cut McCall's majority over Sprague for Municipal Judge to 343, which is 100 less than the unofficial reports indicated yesterday.

Earl Chandler nosed out John H. Lynn for city auditor by the slim margin of 53 and Judge Osborn defeated Henry Uhl, Jr., for council from the second ward by 75 while Joe Kountz was returned the winner over Edward Burton for councilman from the fourth ward by 90. Whit, Independent, had a plurality of 27 over York Democrat

Catarrh Of the Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, massed food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bismarck Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bismarck magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bismarck Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bismarck Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bismarck Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bismarck form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.—Advertisement.

Says Pile Remedy Worth $100.00 a Box

"I have had itching piles ever since my earliest recollection. I am 53 years old and have suffered terribly. I have tried many remedies and doctors, but no cure. About 3 weeks ago I saw your ad for Petersen's Ointment. The first application stopped all itching, and in three days all soreness. I have only used one box and consider I am cured. You have my grateful, heartfelt thanks, and may everyone that has this trouble see this ad and give your ointment, that is worth a hundred dollars or more a box, a trial. Sincerely yours, A. SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It unites or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

DELICATE BOY NOW PICTURE OF HEALTH

By Taking Our Cod Liver And Iron Tonic—Vinol

MRS. C. JONES' SON
Wilkes Barre, Penn.—"I want other mothers to know what Vinol has done for my boy. Bronchial pneumonia left him in a frail, delicate condition and terrible coughing spells. The doctor tried different prescriptions, but he continued to fail. I was told about Vinol and he tried it and I never saw such a change as it has made in him, as he is now the picture of health and perfectly well."—Mrs. Caroline Jones, 144 S. Meade St., Wilkes Barre, Pa.

There is nothing that acts so quickly in building up frail, delicate children as Vinol, as it contains the curative tissue building elements of fresh cod livers without oil, together with the blood making and strength creating properties of Iron, Glycero-phosphates and Beef Peptones, the most successful body and strength building agents known. We will agree to help your child with Vinol or return your money.—Advertisement.

REDUCE THOSE DANGEROUS SWOLLEN VEINS

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful, germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunched to become normal, but also reduces color, enlarged glands and warts.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to continue enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directed. It is a safe and effective remedy. It begins at once. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist or all druggists can supply you.—Advertisement.

Scope Of

to the speculation. Lacking the morning factor in the coming deliberations, however, the American proposals, it is difficult to say to what extent Admiral Kato's utterance has cleared the air.

There is a feeling in some well-informed circles that Baron Kato touched the heart of the matter in stating Japan's willingness to reduce her now famous eight battleships and eight battle cruiser fleet program. To that sequence is to be added a third right as under Japanese standards of naval obsolescence, a capital ship has a first line life of but eight years and must be replaced by a new ship within that period.

American Navy Has No Program
The American navy has no such definite objective. It does not represent an ordered program of replacement for maintaining any fixed force on a fixed ratio of battleships and battle cruisers.

The old British two-power standard which governed the building program prior to 1914, went by the board with the German fleet. Britain is not today building any capital ships. Four new battle cruisers have been authorized in the way of replacements for war losses and to balance that side of the fleet, but they have not been laid down.

The exact status of Japan's new craft is not known. It is certain, however, that Japan has not started construction on all the super-warships of her eight year program.

The American program of 1916, reaffirmed by congress in later years, but deferred during the war and greatly slowed down this year, by limited appropriations, is in much the same status. It includes six battleships and six battle cruisers. Keels of all have been laid.

May Cut Naval Increases
There is a growing belief that this situation may play an important part in the American reduction proposals. It is suggested that a cessation of naval increases for a period of years, perhaps a decade may be proposed. If that should prove acceptable, it is said, it might be followed by proposals to cancel ships laid down on a ship for ship basis.

If it is regarded as probable that Great Britain would accept some such proposal affecting her four authorized battle cruisers, but even in the light of Admiral Kato's statement of Japan's willingness to cut her program, it is not clear how a ship for ship cancellation plan might be viewed by her representatives. Each ship struck off the list would mean a heavier proportional reduction for Japan, it is said, than for Great Britain or the United States.

SOCIETY

The Ohio State Day committee met Monday night at Dr. Tarjek's office and completed the plans for the celebration of Ohio State Day, November 25th. The Mary Louise was chosen as the place to hold the banquet, in the evening. A fine program of talks has been arranged. Astorholm Schuyler was chosen toastmaster, and Harry August will deliver the address of welcome, while Hayward Anderson will make a response in behalf of the Seloto county students of the university.

A feature of the evening will be the hearing of President Harding by wireless. Professor Bohannon, instructor of mathematics at Ohio State, will be the principal speaker of the evening. Cards will be mailed to all alumni and former students, inviting them to join in the meeting.

The Finch Club members were pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louella Weiden, 416 Glover street. Cards furnished the afternoon's entertainment and the only guest was Miss Ida Crothers, Pittsburgh, house guest of the hostess. Light refreshments were served at the close of the game. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. William Bayless, 1410 Lincoln street.

Members of the Art Circle and a few friends enjoyed a delightful afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Albert F. Marting, 339 Eighth street. The afternoon was spent in knitting and fancy needlework, after which a light lunch was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Spencer, with her sister, Mrs. Grace L. Goodwin as assistant hostess.

Why Can't You, Too, Be Well and Strong?

FEW of us realize how precious good health is until we begin to lose it. To be well is to enjoy life and make good times for those around us. To be constantly ailing is to miss life's pleasures and to look with envy upon our robust friends and neighbors.

Are you are of the unfortunates whose health is slowly slipping away? It's time, then you looked to your kidneys!

Much sickness of today is traceable to kidney weakness. Its increase is alarming. That's because it's usually unseen or neglected.

But it's easy to tell if your kidneys are weak. You may have only backache; a lameness, stiffness, or sharp stabbing pains; dizzy spells, headaches, or annoying bladder irregularities.

If you have these symptoms, suspect your kidneys! Remember that delay may result in serious kidney sickness.

But why dwell on the dark picture? Rather think of the brighter side! To remedy such a weakness is to add years to your life and to regain the health and strength that enables you to enter life's daily battle with joy and enthusiasm.

If you have reason to suspect your kidneys, read the stories of these Portsmouth people. They tell how they have won back good health through Doan's Kidney Pills, the world's best-recommended kidney remedy. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Portsmouth Folks:

W. MILLER, Lieut. City Fire Dept. No. 2, 2111 Union Ave. says: "My kidneys became weak and caused trouble. I was obliged to get up three or four times at night and the secretions passed with a terrible scalding sensation. When I stooped I got sharp cutting pains across the small of my back and my back kinked up so I couldn't get straight again. Mornings I was lame and tired and felt all worn out. My family had used Doan's Kidney Pills so I tried them and was relieved of the trouble entirely."

MRS. JAMES HARRY, 819 Murray St., says: "I became very tired and had sharp twinges of pain across my back when stooping. My back was weak and lame and I was worn out after a little work. Mornings I got up as tired as when I had retired and I felt lame and sore. A dizziness came on at times when black objects danced before my eyes and my kidneys were irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended and after using them I was cured of the trouble."

Too Ill To Be Moved To Face Murder Charge

Jerry Sias, arrested Sunday morning on his shantytown at South Point following the disappearance of Arthur Lakin, 35, married, of Catlettsburg, remains in the Catlettsburg jail, too ill to be removed to fronton, where he will stand trial in connection with the death from gunshot wound of Arthur Lakin, whose body was found in a skiff floating down the Ohio river near Greenup, Sunday.

Sias received a severe beating in a fight with Larkin who went to the shantytown to get his brother, George Lakin. In the fight and after Lakin had given Sias the worst of the whipping it is alleged Sias brought his gun into play. Instead of Sias putting the dead body in the boat and setting it adrift, he is thought to have died while attempting to row back to Catlettsburg after being wounded.

Sias is ready to return to Ohio without requisition papers as soon as he is able.

RESULTS IN CLAY TOWNSHIP

Warren Coley, William Fleming, Martin Slaughter, W. S. Herdon, Dewey Parson and John Wolfe, all of New Boston are the six elected Constables of Clay township. William F. Middaugh and Frank R. Wolfe of New Boston were re-elected and W. L. Lewis of New Boston elected a township Trustee of Clay Township. Middaugh led the ticket. He received 484 votes, Lewis 304 and Wolfe 284. Lewis will take the place of G. Wash Williams of Rosemont who leaves the 1st of January first.

The defeated candidates for Trustee offices were Thomas Breach, Long Run 239, Frank Deemer Soloto Trail 242 and John Conkel, Rosemont Road, 223.

Thomas D. O'Neal of New Boston was elected Clerk without opposition. He ran second on the ticket with 463 votes.

A big surprise in the Clay township election was the successful campaign of Mrs. Ethel Craig for township treasurer. She lives on Gallia street, New Boston, opposite the home of the Township Clerk, Mr. O'Neal. Mrs. Craig is a widow and was asked by a friend to be a candidate. She is a timid, home loving woman and did not pay much attention to the campaign at first but later worked in a quiet manner and came out the winner Tuesday. She received a total of 361 votes while C. G. Green of New Boston who opposed her, received only 146 votes.

The Clay township constable election was one that caused considerable comment in not so many months gone by and it was thought that the constables mentioned in the stories that gained circulation then about their activities about the county would result in their defeat should they become candidates. Such was not the case, however for one of this number John Wolfe was elected.

The six successful candidates for constable are Coley, 378; Fleming, 311; Slaughter 304; Herdon 258; Parson 225; Wolfe 200.

Slaughter has been fireman on the New Boston fire truck and Parsons is the present traffic officer at New Boston.

The other candidates for Constable and their vote, Wiley Stewart, 111; Clyde Cochran 175; Clinton Sanders 104; George Moritz 3; H. A. Fannin 1. George Moritz was winner for Assessor, not having opposition.

J. S. VIOLET GAINS IN THE OFFICIAL VOTE

Shy On Ballots In Hamden

HAMDEN, Nov. 10.—Following candidates were elected here at Tuesday's election: Mayor, Clyde Pearce; Marshal, Abe Young; Clerk, Lew Moses; Treasurer, Curt Brown; Justice of the Peace, O. G. Cross; Constable Ralph Wyckoff; Councilmen, H. S. Arnett, H. B. Jenkins, Chas. Fain, C. C. Winstead, John Jolly, John Harris, Assessor, Will Moore; School Board, Alvin McKinniss, Andy Will and T. C. Francis.

Township: Treasurer, Curt Brown; Clerk, L. W. Calvin; Trustees, Geo. Willard, E. C. Wortman and Ed Parkinson. Eleven precincts out of 23 gives John Jolly, D. H. Beyer and W. C. Trauer over 200 majority for County School board.

By some mistake the councilmen petitions did not reach the printer in time to have their names printed on the ballot and it was necessary to write the name on the ticket for whom you wanted to vote. There were 20 different names put on for councilmen.

Dundus special district elected Geo. Peck, Philip Ward and Henry Timms for School Directors, Michael Long for Constable and Wm. Trainor for Justice of the Peace.

Oak Hill Mayor Re-Elected

OAK HILL, Nov. 10.—Mayor I. N. Evans was re-elected over A. W. Skinner by 20 votes in Tuesday's election. In Oak Hill 1st, Evans received 82 votes against Skinner's 68; in Oak Hill second he received 124, while Skinner received but 118. Total votes, Evans 206, Skinner 186.

L. W. Lovett won in a three-cornered marshal's race with Tom D. Jones and James Gilliland. Lovett received in Oak Hill first 80 votes; Oak Hill second 57, total 137. Jones received in Oak Hill first 45 votes; in Oak Hill second 103, total 148. Gilliland received, Oak Hill first 33, Oak Hill second 25, total 58. E. Stuart Davis was re-elected city clerk, Oscar Jenkins was re-elected city treasurer J. W. Kinnison, A. E. Howell and D. D. Davis were chosen for the local board of education, while E. H. Davis, Morris Davis, and Lewis Harrel were chosen members of the County Board over J. A. Bond, Jehiel Haley and S. N. Winters.

Council—Lewis C. Foster, Ed J. Jones, Dan W. Morgan, Ed Sims, M. P. Tope, Wm. D. Williams, will form the city council for the coming year. Bond issue—The bond issue propositions for the issuing of bonds for $42,000 and $70,000 for the erection of a new high school building had but little opposition, receiving 252 and 204 affirmative votes, respectively.

Stewart Has Record Majority

The Ironton Register Thursday said: "Earle E. Stewart, Republican nominee for the office of mayor, was elected over his Democratic opponent, Wayne Elkins. Tuesday, by the largest majority ever given a mayoralty candidate in this city, defeating Elkins by more than 800 votes. Mr. Stewart received more votes than Elkins and Atkinson combined and his victory was a clean cut one in all its phases. The Democratic committee tried all kinds of dodges to get votes for its candidate, but Mr. Stewart's popularity with the voters was so apparent that his election was a foregone conclusion. The cowardly lies circulated about him and his friends, the cattish references as to members of his household, the attempted ridicule of his friends and all the mean, low, despicable means resorted to win a vote for his opponent, were boomerangs and the tremendous protest against such cowardly resorts is shown in his magnificent majority."

Progressive Ticket Wins At Russell

The Progressive ticket, headed by George Osborne, smashed its way through to victory in the city election held at Russell Tuesday. Mr. Osborne led the ticket with a majority of 157 over O. W. Stenmet, who polled 100 votes to Osborne's 317.

For Police Judge, H. C. Wilburn, Progressive, defeated W. G. Whitby by 118 votes. Wilburn polled 290 and Whitby secured a total of 181.

The entire Progressive councilman ticket went over with the following votes polled by Progressive candidates: Wm. Justice 316; Robt. Trent, 360; David Arthur 377; Sam Simpson 250; Fred Mahle 236; D. B. Smith 346. The Back Time council candidates polled the following votes; none sufficient to win: Whitby 170; Foslin 141; Dent 118; Add Hill 236; J. E. Hill 137 and Eastis Rice 105.

Guaranteed Stomach Remedy Makes Big Hit in Portsmouth

Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy Now Being Sold by Druggists On The Square Deal Money Back Plan.

Go to your druggist says Dr. Orth, if you are a sufferer from stomach trouble, and get a handy bottle of Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy—remember the name. Take it according to directions and it, after taking, you can truthfully say it has done you no good. I don't want your money. Simply take "the empty box back to your druggist and get your money back."

So, if you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, acidity, sour stomach, gas, heartburn, biliousness and flatulent eructing, headache, coated tongue, or pain in stomach and side, go to your druggist at once and get a box of Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy, and when you start to take it, realize that you are taking the prescription of a physician who practiced medicine in the States of Pennsylvania and Ohio for sixty years and that in those years he successfully treated thousands of cases exactly like yours.

Now, if you really want a good, healthy, "never bothers me" kind of a stomach; one that you can always depend upon to digest your food, get a box right away, and remember that it is most rigidly guaranteed.

Special note to out-of-town sufferers: Go to the Dr. Orth Labor-atories, East Liverpool, Ohio, will bring a box by Parcel Post, and guaranteed. You can get it at all druggists—advertisement.

Produced The Results

Mayor Cableman called at the police station last night and for over an hour talked over various phases of his big victory.

"We had an organization this year and it got the results. It was not a case of my popularity or Matthews' unpopularity. It was a case of many willful workers and a real organization," the Mayor said last night. He was accompanied to police headquarters by Councilmen "Chief" Westphal and Joseph L. Konitz. The latter is highly elated over his election and his friends predict that he will make good.

Delivers Splendid Lecture; Has New Lecture Tonight

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, unsurpassed as an orator, scholar, and thinker along theological lines interested a good sized audience in the high-school auditorium for more than an hour last night when he gave his famous lecture "The Mission of the Republic."

Dr. Cadman is one of America's best men and the communities which will hear him during this Lyceum season are indeed fortunate. He is universally acknowledged one of the world's greatest preachers—a prophet of his age. He is right now at the top of his powers as a thinker, an orator and a speaker. Dr. Cadman is very active as pastor of the famous Central Congregational church in Brooklyn.

Tonight he will appear for the second time and his subject will be "The Reconstruction of the World." Each number on the high school lecture course this season is given two nights.

Meeting Deferred

On account of the Community Sing Friday evening the teachers meeting scheduled for Bigelow church has been deferred.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says, "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield, Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed giving it to me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night. I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me. My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere.

Iron and Energy

—give them to your husband in a pie that he'll crave because of its luscious flavor

THE man for whom you choose the food, madam, depends largely on you to keep him fit for the modern business grind. He needs foods that give him luscious flavor to enjoy, and energy and iron to refresh and vitalize him. Raisin pie is prime food in both respects. Raisins are rich in iron. Men need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. Raisins furnish 1,560 calories of energizing nutrient per pound—in practically pre-digested form.

SUN-MAID RAISINS

Use Sun-Maid Raisins, made from California's finest table grapes—American raisins, processed and packed immaculately in a great modern California plant. Seeded (seeds removed); Seedless (grown without seeds); Clusters (on the stem). Also a fine, ever-ready dessert. Raisins are cheaper by 30 per cent than formerly—see that you get plenty in your foods.

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers! Watch Your Daughters' Health

Health Is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established she needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is then passing through is so critical and may have such far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that beset this period.

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. She needs thoughtful care for a few years.

In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in perfect safety.

Read how Mrs. Eichler helped her daughter. She says: "At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had pains across her back and in her sides. Every month her back would pain her so she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read the books which were left at my door. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter in your little book and in the newspapers."—Mrs. KATIE EICHLER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Williams will profit by her own experience. She says: "When I was thirteen years old I had sick spells each month and as I was very backward I would hear the pain and my mother knew nothing about it. I read in the daily paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took my own spending money and bought a bottle. It helped me so much that I took it regularly after that until I had taken two bottles and I did not have any more pain or backache and have been a healthy, strong woman. I am now 30 years old and have a little girl of my own and when she gets old enough I shall give her none other than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. C. E. WILLIAMS, 2437 W. Toronto St., Philadelphia, Pa.

For almost fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been relieving women, young and old, of ailments peculiar to their sex. Ask your neighbor about it, for in every neighborhood there are women who know of its merits.

Thousands of letters similar to the above are in the files of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., and for years such letters have been published. Surely it is worth your while to make a fair trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Contractors Effect Organization

The contractors of the city met last night at six o'clock at the Mary Louise and after enjoying supper together, made the preliminary plans for effecting an organization. C. E. Howling was to have spoken at the meeting but other business matters prevented his being present, and the members engaged in a general discussion of the advantages of the proposed plan of organizing, talked over the various phases of their work, and planned big things for the future. It was agreed that the contractors should meet Thursday, November 30 when the plans for the organization would be completed. Matt Holzman, Ed Brohmmer and Charles Barlow were appointed to make the final arrangements for organizing and they will make their final report at the next meeting. John Walters was the chairman of last night's meeting. The members of the contractors organization are:

Carpenters: Henry Cook, James Pfeiffer, George Lemon, W. F. Carson, Matt Holzman, Charles Conklin, Jones & Laidlaw, H. L. Hopkins.
Plumbers: Charles Blawie, Fred Schmidt, C. C. Taylor, Edgar Burkhardt, John T. Walters, Grant Weisman.
Painters: Ed Brohmmer, Ollie Manley, Plasterers: Al Teisler.
Tinsmiths: William Haney, George Gunkler, George Walters.
Electricians: William Trichterler, Alphonse Sommers, Charles Watkins, William F. Walter.

Sent To Workhouse

The Cincinnati Post, of local interest Tuesday said:
Paul Johnson, 48 years old, railroad conductor, Portsmouth, O., was sentenced to six months in the workhouse by Judge Charles W. Hoffman in Juvenile Court yesterday. At a hearing several days ago Johnson was found guilty of attacking a 12-year-old colored boy with whom he was arrested, October 24, by two railroad detectives in the C. & O. yards near Third street.

LOCAL NEWS

A tableau, "A. D. 1919," a commemorative ode will be a special feature of the patriotic entertainment to be held at the high school auditorium Friday night as part of the Armistice Day celebration. The tableau is a part of the program of song to be given by a community chorus.

As the singing program nears its end a number of young ladies in Grecian robes and carrying large green wreaths, march down the aisles and up onto the stage and place them on a large memorial arch. Soldiers in uniform will form a background for this scene.

The young ladies taking part in this will be Misses Virginia Carroll, Joan Farnell, Helen Dowling, Bertha Moore, Ruth Lloyd, Elizabeth Armstrong, Dorothy Goetz, Virginia Goetz, Jane Bellows, Ruth Millard, Dorothy Fremont, Bertha Sellards, Page Geer, Gladys Selby and Mary Louise Selby.

The evening's program starts at 8 o'clock. No admission will be charged. Revival is on at the Immanuel Baptist church of New Boston. The pastor, Rev. Robert Allbaugh, is being assisted by Rev. D. E. Miller of Mt. Gilead, Ohio. The speaker was greeted by a good congregation last evening. The sermon was based on the lives of Elisha and the Shunammite woman and brought out the declaration that the great task of the church is to make dead souls live. Services this evening at 7:35.

An Armistice Day program will be held in the restaurant room of the Selby shoe factory Friday noon. At eleven o'clock the factory whistle will blow, calling the hundreds of employees from their work for several minutes. At 11:05 the factory whistle will blow again dismissing the employees for noon hour. At 11:45 a program will be given in the restaurant room. Rev. D. C. Boyd, of the First Presbyterian church, will give a ten minute address. A quartet, consisting of Misses Bertha Stager and Myrtle Zeigler and Messrs. J. Watson Goddard and Fred Lorey will give several special patriotic selections. The audience will join in singing patriotic numbers and at the close of the meeting a bugler will sound taps.

H. Stanley McCall, Municipal Judge-elect, will be inducted into office early next week as the Board of Election will issue to him a certificate of election on the filing of his expense account, which he was expected to do late Thursday. Then it will only be a matter of a couple of days to obtain his commission from Columbus, and then he will be ready to don the judicial robe.

Judge W. H. Sprague, the present incumbent, who was defeated in Tuesday's election, was appointed by Governor Harry L. Davis on the resignation of Judge Horace L. Small, several months ago. On his retirement he will again take up the practice of law. The new judge will serve out the unexpired portion of Judge Small's four-year term, which extends to January 1, 1925.

On a warrant issued from Municipal Court Clyde Whitman was arrested by the police Thursday for alleged assault and battery upon Mrs. Nettie Garrison, 627 Evans street. The defendant was released on bond and Judge Sprague continued the case for hearing next Monday when it was called in Municipal court later.

Mrs. Garrison claimed that Whitman came to her home and started a row which led him to striking her in the mouth knocking out several of her teeth.

Mrs. Lillie Russa, of 1821 Jackson street, who entered Grant Hospital at Columbus last week underwent an operation for goitre today.

L. J. Reed Suffers Big Loss In Hurricane

L. J. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Reed of 317 Campbell avenue, has written a letter to home folks telling of the tropical storm that caused millions of dollars damage in Tampa and the southern part of Florida two weeks ago. He is a brakeman on a railroad at Tampa and was in one of the sections of the state hit the worst by the hurricane. The parents returned home just a few days before the storm.

"I believe every telegraph pole in Tampa was blown down. The wires were strung all over the streets, completely tying up traffic for two days. Houses were blown away and I had to hold to the top of a cypress tree to keep from being blown away. The little launch 'Safe and Sound,' a mission boat, docked by the Lafayette street bridge, was blown up on the tracks by our freight house. The steamer 'Favorite' was also blown ashore and broke in two, it being a total loss.

"We were without lights for two or three nights but with the aid of lanterns and candles we got along fairly well.

Alvin Woods, Jr.

Alvin Woods, Jr., son of Alvin and Ethel Molen Woods, Fifth street, Sciotoville passed into the land of Eternal Rest at 9:40 o'clock Wednesday evening after an illness of two weeks with Bright's disease, followed by double pneumonia.

Alvin Woods, Jr. was born in Sciotoville, January 12, 1910, and was five years, ten months and twenty-eight days old at the time of death. He was of a sweet and loving disposition, well liked by all who knew him. He was in his first year of school. The little boy also was a faithful attendant at Sunday school and was always happy when time came for him to go to Sabbath school. He bore his suffering with patience until ten o'clock Wednesday morning, when he passed again, death coming at 9:40 last night.

Besides the grief-stricken parents, two brothers, Forrest, 8 years, and Virgil, two years, survive. Funeral services will be held from the M. E. church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock with Rev. W. A. Moore in charge. Burial in Wheelersburg.

Burial In San Diego

Relative to the death of the late Capt. Wiley E. Dawson, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, of Third street, the San Diego, Cal., Times said:
"Capt. Wiley Evans Dawson, U. S. A., retired, of this city, died at the Laurel street sanatorium. He had been suffering for several years from Bright's disease, which recently became acute.

"Capt. Dawson was born in Portsmouth, O., Sept. 5, 1884. He was appointed cadet to the military academy, West Point, N. Y., June 15, 1903, and was graduated June 14, 1907, when he was appointed second lieutenant of infantry and assigned to duty in the Philippine Islands. He was promoted captain in July, 1910, on which date he was retired for physical disability. At this time he had completed four years as assistant instructor in the department of law at West Point.

"During the world war he was placed in active duty, with the rank of major, and served as such at Rockwell field, North Island, until March, 1919, when he was reverted to retired status. In 1920 he was placed on active duty, literally ruining the fruit crop.

"Several people were killed by falling trees and live wires. One woman was in a skirt and was blown clear of the trees, literally ruining the fruit crop.

"The street car line to Port Tampa is all washed away and the only means of getting there is by train or automobile. All the beautiful Bay Shore drive was washed away and even the sea wall was washed out. The houses along there were either blown away or their roofs were blown off.

"My tomato farm was ruined. The tide was so high that it was even with the railroad bridge and was in the tomato camp. That is where I have fared the worst this time. The storm and high tide washed out the docks at St. Petersburg. It washed away about half the R. I. yards at Port Tampa. The 30th was the first they had been able to turn an engine at Port Tampa since the storm. All the wires, being down, no one could send a message out or in. The wind blew all the oranges and grape fruit

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spencer of Huntington, W. Va., are guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Lillard of Pine Creek.

The Standard Bearers of the M. E. church will meet Friday night at seven o'clock with Miss Marjorie Flehr.

Miss Ethel Coldiron of Portsmouth was the guest today of Mrs. Robert Strothers.

Mrs. Albert Hilliard of Harport Road stopped in Portsmouth today.

The Young Ladies class of the M. E. church will give an oryster supper Tuesday evening at the hall over Trevelyan's store. There will be special music and entertainment. Admission 10c. The supper will consist of soup, celery, hot sandwiches and coffee.

Services Close.

The evangelistic services at the Ohio Avenue Christian church, New Boston, Ohio, were brought to a close Wednesday night. After several weeks of preparation Evangelist Pastor P. E. Britton began a "series" of evangelistic services on October 9th and they were continued until November 9th.

The interest in attendance increased from the beginning and after the first week the spiritual interest took a deeper hold and at which time converts were being made by the gospel of Jesus Christ. The good weather was with them from the beginning to the end except inclement weather three evenings. It was found necessary at many of the evening services to use every chair available to seat the entire audience. P. E. Britton is surely an untiring worker and the church people state that never were there such efforts put forth in an evangelistic meeting during the church history of New Boston.

At the invitation last night six more came forward, making a total of sixty-nine converts.

Following the services a reception was given for the new members and all present partook and enjoyed the entire occasion.

Railroad Presidents In Conference.

NEW YORK, November 10.—Decision on the date when announcements of wage reductions will be posted by eastern railroads was to be reached at a meeting of the Association of Railway Executives here today. Another meeting at which problems involved in the proposed reduction by ten per cent of the wages of train service workers were to be considered, was to be held by the eastern presidents' conference. It was forecast the wages of men in the shop crafts and of unskilled laborers would be cut to the going rate for the same class of work in other industries.

Under the provisions of the transportation act, thirty days notice of wage reductions must be given, and at the expiration of this time, conferences will be held between representatives of the roads and their employees. Disputed cases will then be filed with the railway labor board in Chicago. The decision of the labor board yesterday, in which the wage of virtually all classes of employees of the New Orleans and Great Northern Railroad were cut ten per cent, gave railroad executives reason to believe the board would act at once on any cases referred to it.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS.

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache Or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, moving all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the back or leg region, sharp pains in the back or neck, headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's mines of acid salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. And Salt is inexpensive; harmless and makes a deliciously effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

Tanks Switch Proglor From Quarter To End

(Irononian) Due to the bad weather last evening the Tanks were dismissed from their regular practice session and work-out, but the loss will be made up this evening when Coaches Scott and Weikel put the boys through the hardest workout of the week.

Dave Barnett, former I. H. S. quarterback, has been practicing with the team and is showing up well in the director's position. Proglor, who has been assuming this role, is anxious to get back to his old mainstay on half-back where he can be given ample opportunity to make his noted dashing end runs.

The big red machine will be well fit and drilled for the Sunday battle with Ashville who will afford them real opposition. The locals have heard of the wonderful "rep" of O'Connor, the dashing little halfback of the visitors.

Nomads Open Season With Rosemount Stars

Saturday night at 7:30 in Wilhelmette hall the lid will be pried off the Nomads basketball schedule as the Bigelow team will clash with the Rosemount Stars. The Rosemounts have a well organized team for their first year and they feel confident of winning their share of the games in this section this year. The Rosemounts will have the advantage of weight when they meet the Nomads but the Nomads expect to offset this with speed and experience. An admission of 25 cents will be charged to cover expenses. Julius Baesman has been secured to referee the game which will start at 7:30 sharp.

It was a mighty battle last night when the Nuggets and Lafayettes met. The Nuggets had a chance to win first place. And the Nuggets won it, Deltzler, leading off for the Nuggets, had the pins falling his way and he gathered a bunch of strikes and spares that were good for 371, and 220 in his second game. Young rolled 508, and Daehler made an even 500.

Oberlin And Miami Class Of Conference

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—With the 1921 football season on the wane, next Saturday's contests bring the race for the Ohio Conference championship into its final stages with apparently little prospect of a break in the tie for leadership.
Oberlin and Miami, putting seasoned teams on the field, jumped into the lead at the start and have battled neck and neck ever since, each having won five victories and suffered no defeats. Next Saturday's schedule, which brings Oberlin against Case and Miami against Mt. Union, gives little indication that either will be forced to admit defeat and general consensus is made that both will finish the season with their records unmarred. The Miami game will be played at Alliance and Oberlin will go to Cleveland.
Kenyon, the only other conference member, which has escaped defeat so far, has the unusual record of having played four tie games, and therefore is out of the running as far as titular honors are concerned. The smaller team, which in its last appearance played a scoreless tie against Wittenberg, will face Hiram next Saturday at Hiram, with prospects of having an easy time of it.
Woster, which was forced to admit the supremacy of Oberlin after a great battle last Saturday, will furnish what should be one of the interesting contests of the week end, and a real battle in its meeting with Akron at Woster. Akron, like the Presbyterians, has played some good football during the season.

Looks Like Dempsey-Willard Bout Will Not Be Pulled Off

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Arrangements for a return world's heavyweight championship bout between champion Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard, former holder of the title, regarded as practically completed. A few weeks ago, now appear on the verge of dissolution.

Promoter Tex Rickard, who planned the battle for July 1, next in his arena in Jersey City, has exhibited impatience with Willard's delay in returning the signed contract for the battle. Reports have been received here that Willard has made a "strike" in one of his old investments and if the reports are true it is regarded as unlikely that he will devote the necessary time to training for another match with Dempsey.

THE CLEANUP SQUAD

CARE of the wounded and otherwise disabled veterans of the World War has become one of the greatest duties of the federal government and in carrying out the provisions of the legislative enactments in this respect Col. Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' bureau, is sending out "cleanup squads" with the intent of advising all former service men of their rights in regard to the war risk insurance, vocational training and medical treatment.
 The squad having charge of the district comprising Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky will be in Portsmouth, November 16-19, with its headquarters in the American Legion rooms, and its members are making every effort to establish all claims against the government. Three counties, Scioto, Lawrence and Adams will be considered while the squad is in Portsmouth. The squad is in a position to expedite action on claims and in this respect is serving the disabled veterans and the people of America in such a way as no agency has found possible in the past.
 Adequate medical care, vocational training, and compensation are the disabled veteran's just dues. Congress has recognized this in legislative measures providing for these things. The Veterans' bureau under Colonel Forbes is making strenuous efforts to carry out the provisions of these acts. In the states of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky there are approximately 450,000 claims against the government. The greater part of these are just and very deserving. They will now receive action and results.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MONTYRE

NEW YORK, November 10.—The last of the old Bowers is disappearing. John Clapp's Bowers Inn is soon to be dismantled. Among streets of the world the Bowers has been the veriest drab. Little of its hideous color remains. It has its poverty, its cheap shops, its rescue missions, and pawn shops and army of human debris but much of the vice that once marked it has vanished.
 Gone are The Bucket of Blood, Salsade Hall, Nigger Mike Callahan's, The Flea Bag, Gumbo's, The Doctors, The Greasy Dish and many more. The Bowers is now a place where the night division and no waiter in expert in the use of chloral drops could hold a job.
 There are many new characters on the Bowers, but the Potter's Field is the resting place of Schuyler Van Ness, the Bowers duke; Dan the Fiddler; Ike the Knob; Slippery Ole Jutt, who picked a mayor's pocket, and many others who flourished in days gone.
 Morphy Mag McShuskey, Tin Can Clubman, Steve Brodie, Chuck Conners—all with reporter made reputations—have passed on to new heavens. Sunday writers will say the Bowers is a growing good. It makes good copy but the Bowers remains a dark, gloomy street of hallowed memories. In early days it was a section of pleasant Dutch farms, winding, flagstoned walks, gardens of old-fashioned flowers, blue-eyed Dutch maidens while grassy spaces and much sylvan beauty and peace.
 But that was long ago. There remains gambling houses and boot-legging joints, cellar dens, nickel theatres, freak shows and gumball machines. It is not strictly speaking a slum any more, however. This is due to sheerly economic reasons. Merchants of good repute have flocked there.
 Yet the Bowers still stands for poverty and the black despair that comes upon men who have gnawed the bitter fruit of failure. In the evening in the dim lit 25 cent lodging houses one may see through the window faces that have lost hope, eyes that are lustreless and brooding and tottering human wrecks who await emotionless the last great adventure.
 On Lexington Avenue hangs the following gilded sign: "For Sale, Peeking Pups. May be seen by appointment." And across from the Grand Central is a sign which reads: "All Kinds of Ice Cold Milk." Incidentally there are 33 restaurants in the four blocks surrounding the station and at least a dozen entries in the station.
 This tragedy has come under my personal observation. An aristocratic English woman who has spent ten years in China is in New York en route back to China with her husband and Chinese maid. Twice when I have been in the neighborhood where they have been in the neighborhood where they are quartered the Chinese Alma has been screaming from the house in a frenzy of fear. "My mistress," she bubbles "beats me!" Several times I have seen them riding in an open carriage in the shopping district. The mistress became an opium smoker. When she comes out of the unreal world of dreams she becomes maniacal. The dream of opiumland is too much for her. The maid, to her disordered mind, represents the dark and envious ways that led to her downfall.
 It was rather cruel of William Collier to introduce Sir Harry Lauder at a New York banquet as "our close friend." Lauder seems to have lost none of his democratic ways since being knighted. He has been picking a New York theatre nightly and in the afternoon his Scotch plaid cap and pipe are familiar figures along the theatrical belt.

The Growth of Oil
 The production and marketing of oil and its by-products was for many years the subject of extended criticism in the United States. Its development in a large way came during the period when capital first began to combine in corporations for exploiting great enterprises, and the people were soon alarmed by the power of vast sums of money concentrated to one purpose. Abuses of this power, operated to crush legitimate competition by unfair methods, thrived; the railroads, through rebates and secret agreements, became partners in crooked business. How to hold in proper check the alliance between the Standard Oil Company and the railroads of the country, through which smaller independent oil companies were slowly but surely starved into bankruptcy, became a very live political and business issue.
 But that is history. The Republic by peaceful and proper methods through its laws and courts mastered the problem, and today the oil business is free, open and fair. It is well that this is true, for oil now ranks with iron, steel, concrete, coal and electricity as one of the major utilities of progress. We may also say that we are coming to an oil age, just as we arrived at the successive ages of wood, iron, steel and concrete. Oil's importance in light, heat and transportation at the present time and in the future can hardly be estimated. Its hold on usefulness is constantly expanding in many directions, and its capitalization is prodigious. The riches of oil, now and to come, are beyond comprehension.

 American petroleum was first mentioned in a published volume in 1635, when a traveler found it in Northwest Pennsylvania. More than 200 years later, in 1854, the first business organization for its development was formed—also in Western Pennsylvania. In ten years the search for oil spread into contiguous portions of West Virginia and Ohio. As first used petroleum was only a medicine. Its utility for lighting purposes came in the middle 60's. The writer happened then to be a boy at Marietta, Ohio where one of the first Ohio fields (the Cow Run sand) was under development, and candles were giving way to "coal oil" illumination. Through the years since, invention and chemistry have constantly widened the values of petroleum and its products until today its use is universal and spreading over the entire world as fast as production will admit.

Only Tail and Cloven Hoof Lacking
 Now the Dark Continent dith a tale unfold that would have set Barium to culling his agents abroad for the greatest curiosity on earth. The story comes of a Kaffir boy with horns, growing straight up from his forehead. Fortunate youth, to whom riches beckon from afar! However, he or his parents have not appreciated his fantastic endowment. On the contrary, they have trimmed down the boy's horns, tried to deform him, in fact, ever since his demoliac development began. Thus are special favors of nature frequently squandered by those who know not their value in the circulating medium of exchange.
 A man, black with horns a foot long! Who can estimate his commercial value to a manager skilled in arousing human curiosity? What tragedian, what operatic star, what movie queen, is worth so much as a magnet to attract ticket sales? Properly garbed to represent the Devil, with an imitation hoof and tail, what thrill this Kaffir boy may yet excite in a world that has long sought a flesh and a blood horn-growing prototype of His Satanic Majesty!
 The boy will be taken to London, 'tis said, and later brought to America, to enable scientists to study his extraordinary inheritance from the age of demonology. Study, forsooth! It is seeing the seeling and the feeling of those inevitable horns, that the public will contribute its dollars for. We shall behold a man devil equipped with first degree insignia. Later the tail and cloven hoof may come to delight us, but it's enough now to have the genuine horns we have sought to visualize ever since our first conception of Lucifer in Milton's stately poetry and Dore's drawing.
 While awaiting confirmation of the story from abroad we shall trust that it is true, and not a "white elephant" thrust upon a confiding and wonder-loving public.

Just as doing without corsets thickens the waist, so do low shoes thicken the ankles, declares a mischief-maker, who says high shoes keep the ankles slender. Maybe so, but beauty is natural, not a matter of appliances.
 The boys are coming home from their watch on the Rhine—15,000 men and 700 officers—the withdrawal beginning on Armistice Day. They have cost the occupied country $300,000,000. The soldiers are said to regret the order to return.

 Father—"Yes, my dear."
 Daughter—"And when I marry I can take it away with me?"
 Father—"Certainly, my child. But don't tell any one; it might spoil your chances."

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED
 You will dispense with so-called bread and butter plates at dinner. At luncheon, breakfast or tea these small plates may be put near the larger one and a silver knife with it.
 You will, in eating one of the softer cheeses, cut it in bits and put it on bread or wafers served with it. With pie it is taken on the fork quite as the pie is.
 You will eat cake, like bread, in small bits or use a fork in disposing of it.

October
 The restful hour! Old Nature's weary day
 Has reached the twilight hour, when shadows play
 In soft caress upon its fevered brow.
 Behind it lie its ceaseless tasks, and now,
 Before it sleeps, it fain would breathe awhile
 The crisp air; and woo a cheery smile
 To grace the visage grim of Mother Earth,
 Whose heavy toil leaves scanty room for mirth.
 It calls the birds to chatter for a time,
 Before they take their wing for warmer clime.
 And, where the distant hills lift up to view,
 It weaves a filmy coat of softest hue;
 While o'er the fields, so full of yesterday,
 It pauses now to dust a golden haze.
 With lazy fingers, too, and careless
 It splashes colors on the woodlands green,
 Until in richness of a thousand shades,
 A blended harmony the eye persuades.
 There's naught of haste, or worried scintillate urge;
 No hurried hours, when labor piles the scourge
 To drive the harvesting.
 Instead a peace,
 Subdued and calm! Old Nature's sweet
 From anxious months of unrelenting stress!
 Its every moment filled with tenderness,
 The winds are bid with gentleness to creep
 And lull the weary world to slumber deep.

In Life's October, may your weary heart
 Forget its pain! As by magician's art,
 May all the bills of harsh accomplishment
 Be mellowed by a present sweet content.
 May all God's harmonies, pure, clear, sublime,
 Submerge the discords of the restful time;
 And make your days as southward slants the sun,
 Beatitudes in melody, when done.
 Thus shall your life a tender calm invite.
 To wait in peace, the coming of the night.

It Goes Two Ways
 Bashful Mr. Jones was at a dinner party and had been trying all evening to say something nice to his hostess. Finally he thought he saw his chance.
 "What a small appetite you have, Mr. Jones," she remarked.
 "To sit next to you, Mrs. Smith," he replied gallantly, "would cause any man to lose his appetite."
 And then he wondered why he wasn't invited to the next affair.

Many People Who Need Glasses
 Are able to see perfectly. The way a person sees has little to do with determining whether glasses are needed or not. The eyes act automatically, and the muscles often OVERCOME errors of vision, so that the patient is not aware that they exist. But these errors of vision that are overcome are the cause of more trouble than any others. Better let us look your eyes over, no matter what you think about them.
